

Event Date: November 8th-12th 2021
Deadline for submission: September 30th

The Bootcamp for Creative Entrepreneurs is an initiative to bring together emerging entrepreneurs in the cultural and creative businesses from the Northern Dimension Region¹. The aim of the Bootcamp is to promote mutual professional development, skill sharing and the development of relevant networks for future projects. The Bootcamp will be facilitated by the creative incubators of the Nordic or Baltic countries, including Russia, Poland and Northern Germany.

What's happening?

Through this open call 20 selected emerging entrepreneurs from the culture and creative industries in Northern Dimension countries will meet up in St. Petersburg, Russia (in the case of travel restrictions to Russia, the Bootcamp will take place in Estonia). For a total of three days, the participants will work collaboratively together in workshops, innovating new creative business and project ideas.

The workshop will be facilitated by the Swedish creative coach and artist Martin Q Larsson (Subtopia), in collaboration with coaches and staff from the Northern Dimension Region's creative incubators. At the end of the event, the Bootcamp's findings will be presented at the International NDPC Cultural Forum (November 11th).

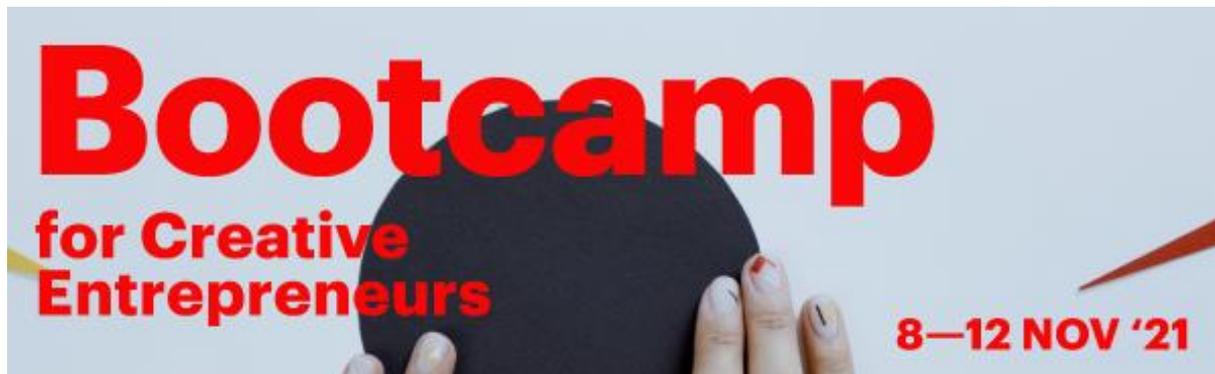

How to apply?

Apply for participation by sending an e-mail to Martin Q Larsson at klump@subtopia.se. Outline why you would like to take part in the Bootcamp and add a copy of your current CV with a link to your website or portfolio. Send in your application by September 30th at the latest.

The final selection of participants will be based both upon consideration of the applicant's motivation and approach, but with a view to creating a dynamic group, with a mix of diverse professions, backgrounds and genres.

Costs

For the selected participants, the project will cover all costs, including transport, accommodation, visa, meals, coaching, and required equipment for the Bootcamp.

Covid-19 Measures

As we want to make the Bootcamp safe from coronavirus, we want all participants to be double vaccinated, or provide a digital Covid-19 certificate recognized within the EU as a proof of recovery from coronavirus. Nevertheless, we will use large spaces to maintain plenty of physical distance, as well as other standard measures guarding against corona.

The Bootcamp will take place under the conditions that permit travel within the region, which will be confirmed by October 8th at the latest.

The Bootcamp is organized by Northern Dimension partnership on Culture Secretariat, EUNIC Global, Subtopia and co-funded by the European Union.

If you have any queries regarding your application or the project, please email Martin Q at klump@subtopia.se, or call on +46739607026.
